SEN. VEST ANSWERED.

President McKinley's Trip.

(From Our Regular Correspondent.) WASBINGTON, D. C., Dec. 19, 1898.

Senato · Platt, of Conn., never speaks unless he has something to say. Consequently, he a'ways gets the attontion of his colleagues when he speaks, although he is not an orator in the general acceptance of the term. His strong point is facts, and he brought out an unusual lot of them. when he proceeded to demolish the things set up by Senator Vest in the name of an argument in favor of his resolution, declaring that this government had no constitutional right to acquire territory except with the intention of admitting it to the Union as

MADE IT PLAIN.

Mr. Platt made it as plain as A. B. C. that this government had a clear right to acquire territory to be disposed of in any manner it might see fit, and clinched it by showing that it had almost from the beginning of the government exercised this right without question.

coratic response to his anti-expansion key-note all that he expected it would be. On the contrary, he was plainly told by a number of demoratic Sens tors and k-presentatives that they could not endorse his position, and that their constituents would not. If he had it to do over again, there is very little doubt that Mr. Bryan would be less emphatic in expressing his op-position to expansion, but as he has fully committed himself, there is nothing left for him to do but to stand by what he said, and take the conse Quences.

OPPOSE THE INCREASE.

Strange as it may seem, there are Senators and Representatives—none of them Republicans,—who oppose the bill to increase the regular army to well says that "such are the conditions 100,000 men, and to otherwise put it and such are the surroundings that it upon a modern basis. Some of these men were very loud in their complaints because the organization of the army at the beginning of the war with Spain was inadequate to the occasion that there was unavoidable delay in getting the army is of the south. The governthe army in fighting condition. Now, they want to perpetuate the old and inadequate organization, forgetting inadequate organization, forgetting the sdvice of Washington—"In time of peace, prepare for war." Fortunately for the country, these chateuetionists for the country, these obstructionists are in the minority; their opposition may delay the increase of the army, but they cannot prevent it.

CONGRESS WILL ADJOURN.

Congress will this week adjourn for the customary Christmas recess of two weeks. No time will really be lost by the recess, as all of the important committees will work right through it. he Angio-American Commission has taken a recess until January 5th. The work of the Commission has not been progressing very rapidly of late, and it is now practically certain that if there is a treaty at all, it will not include commercial reciprocity.

Hon. David J. Hill, Assistant Secre tary of State, delivered an interesting address on the Expansion of civilization" at a banquet. Referring to the disposition in some quarters to harp on the word "imperialism," Mr. Hill on the word "imperialism," said: "A malignant disposition could not have selected a worse word than imperialism. It is not a new one and the idea is not novel. It has existed since the inception of national growth.

THE PROGEE'S OF CIVILIZATION. "Civilization must go on until there as not one province, one island, one in-dividual upon which its benign light does not fall." He answered those wao argue that it would be a violation of the Constitution for us to set up a form of government over any people. without allowing them to choose its form as well as its officials, by saying: 'Nations as well as individuals mus pass through the period of minority.
It was so with this nation. See how closely our forefathers guarded the right of franchise. All constitutional lawyers agree that the franchise is not a natura right, but a legal gift The matural rights are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, and I cannot be-lieve that it is an evil for the stars and stripes to float over any people, and it is therefore our duty to extend the blessings of our civinzation to all men capable of receiving them."

and present expectation is that the bills will be reported early in January.

Judge T. G. Beaseley, of Fayesteville, Ga., is a representative intelligent southerner. He is now visiting Washington, and among other interesting things, said: "Fresident McKinley has made himself so solid in the South, especially in Georgia and Alabama, that in the event of his renomination in 1800, he will get thousands of democratic votes in those states. His broad-gaged sentiments and generosity have captured our people."

Let The South Settle 1t.

[Columbus, O. Evening Dispotch.]

There is evidently a wide difference There is evidently a wide difference of opinion among the colored people of Columbus on the question of the utility of an indignation meeting to denounce the violence of the whites toward the blacks in North Carolina. After much parleying, in which this difference of opinion appeared, a date for the meeting was set and now, for some reason best known to themselves there has been a postponement. The indications are strong that the thinking colored men of the community are not interested in the meeting believing as likey do that the race question must Republicans in Congregation and the south, and enthusiass sitically endorse everything he said about expansion and the government caring for the Confederate dead. The enthusiasm with which the President's straight from-the-shoulder expansion talk was received in the South with a spoint r for some of the democratic anti-expansionists that is being carefully ti-expansionists that is being carefully the south produces more colored men of prominence than the north; and these, including Judson Lyons, Dancy, Mitchell, Dumas, King, Lynch and Mitchell, Mitche these, including Judson Lyons, Dancy, Pledger, Mitchell, Dumas, King, Lynch and Booker T. are to be trusted.

Living there and knowing their people and the whites as they do, they are far better equipped to find a proper solution of the race problem than any alarmists in the north or elsewhere who delight to hold indignation. who delight to hold indignation meetings, resulting only in the adoption of resolutions expressing sentiments already known to exist and the remandng of the whole question to those who must meet it-the colored people of the south.

The southern victims of these out rages do not ask for these meetings in the north. They feel that they them selves are equal to the emergency and two races in the south. The govern-ment has caused the arrest and will prosecute the leaders in that mob; and the proposed meeting here will neither accelerate nor retard the movement to apprehend and punish the guilty. The men who are living in the south are numerous enough and wise enough to solve the problem and it will be well

Virginia Seminary and the Appropriation.

WHY IT WAS SAID TO BE WITH-DRAWN.

President Hayes and the American Raptist Home Mission Society.

The Board of Trustees of Virginia Seminary met in this city on Tuesday, 18th inst. Present, Rev. J. M. Armistead, D. D., [chairman,] Rev. R. H. Bowling, D. D., [secretary], Rev. D. N. Vassar, D. D., Rev. W. F. Graham, D. D., Rev. B. F. Fox, D. D., Rev. A. Chisholm, D. D., Rev. J. W. Kirby, D. D., Rev. P. F. Morris, D. D., and John Mitchell, Jr.

of Trustees as at present constituted will not vote to put President G. W. Hayes out.

Dr. Morgan wrote as follows:

I have received a copy of the Pre amble and Resolutions adopted by a so-called Congress, held at Lynchburg, Va., Nov. 30, 1898. In order to correct any misunderstanding which may arise from the publication of these Preamble and Resolutions I wish to

The Home Mission Society is very desirous of having this work completed, and is bearing its full share of the expense of doing

SUPPORT NOT WITH-DRAWN.

Third: The Society has not with-drawn its support of $1,000, a year from Virginia Seminary. That amount has been voted and will be paid when the Trustees of the Seminary are prepared to accept it on conditions which are equitable and helpful to the Seminary.

The Board of Frustees of the Semi-nary requested that the $1,000 hither to given toward the salary of President Hayes should be paid this year toward the liquidation of the interest on mortgage debt, stating that Pres. Hayes had voluntarily surrendered his claim for salary from the Society. Inasmuch as the Society had already loaned to the Seminary Trustees on a second mortgage $4 000 on which it is receiving no interset it declined the present ing no interest, it declined the proposition to pay $1 000 on the interest due to other parties. Very respectfully. T. J. MORGAN, New York. Cor. Secretary Dec. 7, 1898.

R. H. Bowling, D. D., 324 Bute St., Norfolk, Va. Dear Brother :-

Your letter of June 24th addressed been carefully considered by both of us in it you say that the Board of Trustees of Virginia Seminary at your meeting in Richmood. Va. on June 9 h, "requested the Home Mission Society 10 advance the manufacture of Miss Eva B Terry Advance the seminary at your ciety 10 advance the seminary at your The marriage of Miss Eva B Terry A DAY OF PRAYES. advance the annual salary $1,000 of the President that it may be used in paying on the interest of the debt, the same being agreeable to Prof. Hayes." Dr. MacVear and I both think it unwise to submit such a ey moon. proposition as this to our Executive Board, as we are very sure that it would be rejected.

OF GRAVE IMPORTANCE.

In this connection let me ask your attention to some matters which think of very grave importance. First, As you know, the American Baptist Home Mission Society has for many years shown its deep interest in the success of the Virgin: a Seminary at Lynchburg, and has by annual appropriations for the salaries of teachers, and by a loan of $4 000 to meet in-debtedness, and by counsel and advice that it could give, aided the school. Second, When the Plan of Co-opera tion in Virginia was entered into Vir ginia Seminary was included as an af-filiated school of Virginia Union University, and it was hoped and believed that the Educational interests of Vir gins thus unified, simplified and in-tensified, would be carried on more successfully than ever before.

FULFILLED ITS PROMISES.

Third: The Society has up to the present time done all that it sgreed to do, fulfilling strictly and literally what will see from this es, edially that the Home Mission Society agreed to lend to the Seminary $4,000, taking a sec-ond mortgage on its property.

Fourth: Nuring the time that this scheme of co-operation has been in progress we had a right to expect that those connected with Virginia Seminary would act in good faith, and join us in rendering the scheme of co-operation successful. We are sorry to say that this does not seem to us to have

TWO STEONG A BACE MAN.

G. W. Hayes, the President of the Seminary is so strong a race; man, and has expressed his sentiments so vigorously both in public speech and in the newspapers as to create a wide-spread impression that he was opposed to the scheme of co-operation; and whether he has been or not, his influence has certainly been an obstacle in the way of complete triumphant.

We have however borne with this

The discussion as to whether or not the American Baptist Home Mission Society had withdrawn its annual appropriation of $1000, has been widespread and we reproduce here the letter to Rev. R. H. Bowling, upon which that impression is based.

It would be well to state that President Hayes denied the use of the exact language imputed to him.

The misunderstanding no doubt was due to the proposition of the Society that the colored people of Virginia Seminary would now as to be paid first to the American Baptist Home Mission Society, for its use of the educational work in the state, and $20,000 for Virginia Seminary would to store event of the money until $15,000 had been raised on the field of Virginia for the Society.

The Board of Trustees of Virginia Seminary would ship to the color to the money until $15,000 had been raised on the field of Virginia for the Society.

The Board of Trustees of Virginia Seminary met in this city on Tuesday, 18th inst. Present, Rev. J. M. Armitsten, D. D., (chairman), Rev. R. H. Rowling, D. D., (secretary), Rev. D. N. Bowling, D. D., (secretary), Rev. A. Chis-

DR. MAC VICAR'S DENIAL.

Sixth: Dr. MacVicar, Superintend Sixth: Dr. MacVicar, Superintendent of Education, who was familiar with all the facts of the history, arose and publicly contradicted the statement of President Hayes. His offense was very grave. He offered no apolgy for it, and we thought that he should not have been re-elected President of Virginia Seminary until he had made amends to tar Society for his unjust charge, or certainly, at least, not until after the question of his re-election had been submitted to us for our consideration.

NO DESIRE TO INTERFERE.

We have no desire whatever to in-terfere with the independence of the Board of Trustees of the Seminary; have never dictated to them in mat-ters of selection of President and teachers, and have no desire to do so. teachers, and have no desire to do so. We only feel that we have a right to ask that if the Plan of Co-operation with this Society is to continue and we are to be asked year by year to appropriate money to Virginia Seminary the President of the Institution ought to be a man of honor, and at least not unfriendly to this Society.
